Covent Garden, London

This market was mainly a fruit and vegetable market, but moved away in 1974 because of traffic problems. The market is now more famous for cafés and art.

This market was only built in 2014 and is shaped like a horseshoe. It has 228 apartments and 4600 m² business space surrounding the market.

Markthal, Rotterdam

Ratchaburi, Thailand

The market is famous for its fresh produce and for selling from boats. It is open from early in the morning to about 11 a.m.

This famous Christmas market was the first real Christmas market and started in 1434. It attracts over 3 million visitors a year.

Striezel Market, Dresden

Shilin Market, Taiwan

This night market doesn't open until late afternoon and doesn't close until 1 or 2 a.m. It is the largest and most famous night market in the country.

This market is one of the largest fresh seafood markets in the country. It is more famous for having to move every time a train comes through.

You can't come in and we have cameras watching the area. Stay out.

The cliff could collapse at any moment. It will kill if you are here when it does. Stay away.

Warning! You can go in the water, but sharks are possibly in the water, too. You decide.

Warning. Do not throw this item around. The contents will almost certainly break.

We are closed, but not permanently. We hope to open again soon.

There is not much room here. If you try to go past someone on a bike, it won't work. Patience!

Just so you know. There are a lot of cars. Don't be surprised if you find yourself in a traffic jam.

Warning. This area has insects in it. The insects bite and could give you an illness.
